Get 25 Tons in Waste Paper Drive

Splendid cooperation with the waste paper drive was evidenced last Sunday, when local householders turned in 25 tons of paper for the collection by the Andover salvage committee. It was the first paper collection ever held here, and a substantial sum was netted for the Servicemen's Fund committee, recipient of the proceeds.

Sunday morning at 10 sharp, 35 trucks began rolling through Andover streets, with their owners, drivers and 60 Punchard and Junior high boys donating their time to the one-day campaign. Three empty vans of a Haverhill paper company were waiting in the Central school parking area so that the magazines and paper collected could be loaded into them immediately on arrival. By Monday the paper was well on the way to reprocessing.

The committee was pleased with the way householders followed instructions on separating and wrapping the papers. Its only suggestion for future collections is that the paper be tied more securely with stronger cord or rope. It has also expressed its appreciation for the time, effort and truck use donated to the cause.

Trapp Family Sing Here Next Thursday Evening

The Trapp Family Singers have announced their complete program to be given in Jordan Hall, Boston, on Sunday afternoon and Monday evening. The same program will be given at Phillips academy in Andover on next Thursday evening, December 9.

The members of the family are Agatha and Johanna von Trapp, first sopranos; Maria and Rosemary von Trapp, second sopranos; Hedwig and Martina von Trapp, first contraltos; Baroness Maria von Trapp, second contralto; and Dr. Franz Wasner, baritone.

The program to be offered by the picturesque Austrian folk-singers is:

Duo Seraphim—Tomes Luis de Vittoria, Vere Languores—Antonio Lotti, Over the Mountains Mary Went—Eccard-Brahms, Alleluia (Canon)—Wolfgang A. Mozart, Sonata for alto recorder and spinet—G. Ph. Telemann, The Farmer's Boy—Arr. by Franz Wasner, The Old Woman and the Peddler—Arr. by K. E. Davis, Christmas Cantata: "I bid Thee welcome, Bridegroom, Sweet"—Vincent Luebeck, Carols: Hirten Auf, Um Mitternacht, The Friendly Beasts, Es Hat Sich Heut' Eroeffnet, The Virgin's Lullaby, Hark, the Herald Angels Sing, all arranged by Dr. Wasner; and Silent Night, Franz Gruber.

Lay Out Plans for Pre-Christmas Fair

List 32 Hostesses For Tea Thursday Afternoon

What promises to be the most successful fair in the church's history will be staged next Thursday and Friday, December 9 and 10, when St. Augustine's annual fair will be held in the parochial school hall. A large number of parishioners are members of the various fair committees. The fair will be highlighted by a tea Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 at the homes of 32 members of the parish.

The fair will be open Thursday and Friday evenings, and Friday afternoon for children. There will be novelty, white elephant, baby, doll, apron, linen, preserve and refreshment tables.

Hostesses for the tea will be: Mrs. Herbert Auty, Miss Catherine Barrett, Mrs. Eugene Bernardin, Mrs. Thomas Biery, Mrs. M. A. Burke, Mrs. Fred Calnan, Mrs. George Cheyne, Mrs. Jerome Cross, Mrs. Andrew Crotty, Miss Margaret Curran, Mrs. Edward Dowd, Mrs. John Fleming, Mrs. John Friel, Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald, Mrs. Elias Ganem, Mrs. Elmer J. Grover, Miss Anne M. Harnedy, Mrs. William Hearne, Mrs. James Holihan, Mrs. Frank P. Markey, Mrs. William Merchant, Mrs. John Mulcahy, Mrs.

Orchestra Concert Features Selections From "Messiah"

Combining with the Andover Male Choir and the Women's Chorus for its now-traditional pre-Christmas concert, the Andover Community Orchestra will offer a well-rounded program at the Memorial auditorium December 12 at 8:00, the entire proceeds going to the Servicemen's Fund.

The concert will be opened by the 148th Psalm, set to music by Holst, and will conclude with selections from Handel's Messiah, offered last year in its entirety, with soprano and contralto soloists.

The complete program will be: 148th Psalm for orchestra and chorus (Holst), Christmas Day, choral fantasy on old carols (Holst); Christmas Eve Orchestral Suite (Rimsky-Korsakov)—orchestra and chorus; Break forth, Oh beauteous Heavenly light (Bach), Lo how a rose (Praetorius)—Andover Male Choir; Sleep little dove (Gaveert)—Women's Chorus; Deck the hall (old English carol), Sing Noel (Snow)—mixed chorus; intermission; selections from The Messiah (Handel)—orchestra and chorus, with soprano and contralto soloists.

December Quota Biggest In Months

Many Pre-War Fathers In Draft Group Leaving Thursday For Induction; January Call Unknown

Local Board 3, in common with most of the other draft boards throughout the country, will send an unusually large number of prospective inductees to the Boston induction station next Thursday morning. Many pre-Pearl Harbor fathers are included in the quota, the largest since August.

The district board is now filling its quotas to the best of its abilities, a number of volunteers often aiding in meeting the quotas without undue hardship. Nothing official has been received by the board yet on the January quota. The present group will leave next Thursday morning for Boston about 7:30.

The names of the men to be inducted are:

Church Canvass Sunday Afternoon

Rev. Frank E. Dunn Heads Church Council Committee

The annual united church canvass of all the Protestant churches of Andover will be made Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:00. Committees representing the various churches are now at work completing plans for the canvass, which, besides securing adequate financial support for the churches, has other advantages, such as increased church attendance, greater cooperation of laymen in church work, more community interest in religion, improvement of methods of reaching and enlisting total membership, deeper loyalty on the part of the individual member, and good will among the churches.

This "united front" on the part of the churches, incidentally, was well demonstrated Thanksgiving, when there was a much larger attendance than usual at the union Thanksgiving service at the South church, with seven ministers and the combined choirs participating.

No Outside Lighting At Seminary This Christmas

For the second Christmas season of the war, St. Francis Seraphic seminary in West Andover will not offer the beautiful outside illumination which drew large throngs there in former years. Rev. Luke Ciampi, O.F.M., who has supervised the installation of the lights in former years, said Monday that, while there is no prohibition against lighting the seminary this year because of the lifting of the dimout, it would not be advisable to do so.

An elaborate manger scene will be erected in the seminary chapel, however, which the public, and especially the children, are invited to view.

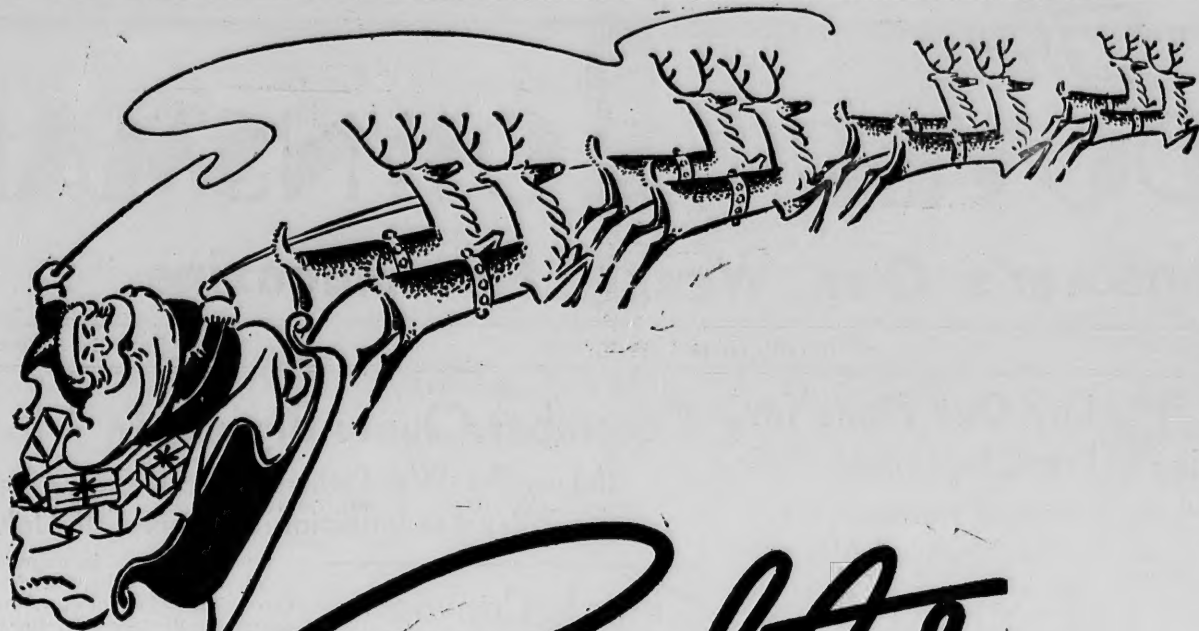

The idea of decorating the chapel, seminary and grounds was originated about ten years ago by Rev. Aloysius Costa, O.F.M., and the spectacle grew more and more magnificent during the succeeding years until, in 1941, it attracted thousands of visitors nightly and probably 100,000 during the Christmas season.

Postoffice Asks More Accurate Mail Addressing

The local postoffice is urging Andover residents to include the postal unit number in addresses on letters going to 124 of the larger cities in the country—"Boston 8, Mass." instead of just "Boston, Mass."

The statement by the postoffice says "The armed forces have taken from the postal services some 35,000 men, whose special skills and local knowledge can't be replaced right away. It takes two to five years to make an expert sorter who can assign any address to its proper delivery district. Substitute sorters have to set aside addresses they don't know, look them up later—a delay that may cost a letter a day."

"To keep deliveries normal, the postoffice wants you to include in the address of a letter or package the Postal Unit Delivery number, in the 124 cities where the numbers have been assigned."

"With the unit number part of the address, the sorter can send the letter out for the next delivery. This number system is not only essential to maintain postal service at this time, but will improve postal efficiency in all larger cities."

With the coming of Christmas, the postoffice would like to see mailing done as early and as accurately as possible. In a town the size of Andover, in normal times, postal workers often carry in their heads an accumulation of information about local people—that "James Jones, 46 Elm street", for instance, is really the John Jones who has bought a new home in Lincoln circle. But with postal employees entering service, and new and inexperienced workers replacing them, and with the extra burden of Christmas mail superimposed, there can be no guarantee that "James Jones, 46 Elm street", will be located before the holiday.

More Air Raid Drills In Store for Andover

Despite the increasingly bright war prospects, Douglas S. Byers, chairman of the local Committee on Public Safety, this week warned that air-raid drills in Andover are by no means a matter of history.

A bulletin from the state committee received by Mr. Byers states that "periodic drills and exercises, including blackouts, should be held at such time and in such manner as will insure the maintenance of an alert and efficient protective force."

Such tests will not be held more than once a month, however, and no surprise tests of any nature are contemplated unless directly ordered by the First Service Command. Two weeks public advance notice will be given all tests not intended as a surprise.

Most practice tests will be scheduled for Sundays, outside church hours, in order to obtain a maximum attendance. War industries which had good records in the past will not be required to participate. There is also no intention of reducing the various departments to "skeleton forces," as their present strength is considered the minimum for safety.

P. T. A. Square Dance for Stage Curtain Purchase

The Central P. T. A. square dance will be held tonight at 8 in the Memorial gymnasium. Harold Phinney will furnish the music and call the dances.

Friends of the P. T. A., whether parents of school-age children or not, are invited to attend. Proceeds from the dance will be used to purchase new stage curtains for the Stowe school assembly hall.

The committee in charge is: Mrs. B. A. Ryberg, chairman, Miss Evelyn Banning, Mrs. E. Harrison Brown, Jr., Mrs. Edwin Bramley and Mrs. Otis Severance, P. T. A. president.

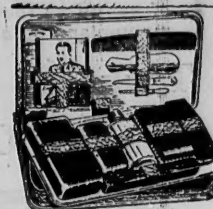

BAKERY SALE TOMORROW

The Helping Hand society of the Free church will hold a bakery sale tomorrow from 1 to 5 in the Musgrove building. A wide variety of pastry items will be available. Mrs. Carrie Buchan is president of the organization and Mrs. James Edgar secretary.

RED CROSS NEWS

FIRST AID—Any women in Andover who would like to brush up on their first aid are invited by the Red Cross motor corps to join their practice session under Mrs. Henry G. Tyer Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Red Cross rooms on Main street.

MAGAZINES—Since most service agencies are designed to furnish books rather than magazines to servicemen, the Red Cross has become a clearing house for magazines, which may be left at the Red Cross rooms. They will be forwarded to service posts, hospitals and other agencies.

HOME NURSING—The new class opens Wednesday at 7:30 at the Red Cross rooms. Everybody's welcome; a large attendance is desired.

PRODUCTION—The Red Cross is still busy in its production department. Last week, six cartons of knitted articles were shipped to servicemen in camp in this country, and four cartons of relief materials were sent overseas. An accumulation of 144 soldiers' kits was also shipped out last week, for presentation to men embarking for overseas.

Volunteers for sewing are still welcome at the chapter house on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The canteen serves lunch on Tuesdays at a nominal charge. Knitting yarn is also given out on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Speaks on Salvage Of Axis Art Loot

Francis H. Taylor, a member of the American Commission for the Protection and Salvage of Artistic and Historic Monuments in Europe, spoke before the Phillips club Tuesday evening at the Peabody house.

Mr. Taylor serves on the American Commission with such distinguished Americans as Supreme Court Justice Owen D. Roberts, Librarian of Congress Archibald McLeish and Ex-Governor Herbert H. Lehman. He is also a director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City.

The Commission functions under the auspices of the government, and with similar groups in other countries, for the protection of works of art, historic and artistic records, in Europe.

REALTY TRANSFERS

Misses Edith and Miriam Sweeney have sold the old tenement block and cottage in the rear, on Central street, to the Andover National Bank, which plans to tear both buildings down, thereby improving the property and making a parking space possible.

Mrs. Mary A. Schwarz has sold her home on South Main street, The Cedars, to Robert Crockett of Andover, head of the Crockett Transportation company.

Both sales were made through the Fred E. Cheever Real Estate Agency.

SQUARE AND COMPASS CLUB

Kenneth Chun, a student at Phillips academy who comes from Shanghai, China, will speak before the members of the Andover Square and Compass club Monday evening. His subject will be "China—Before, During and After the War".

There may be a Varsity basketball team for the boys this year, which will play outside games, but the plans have not been fully completed. There is also the all-star game usually played at the close of the season.

A glee club is being formed and the first meeting will be held Monday during the seventh period.

The orchestra is looking forward to playing at an assembly in February. The members are Judith Napier, Maurice Shea, Dana Bullen, Joan Cross, William Ganem, William Ruel, Walter Swenson, John Watt, Polly Black, Edwin Bramley, Shirley Cairns, Joan Capen, Jane Draper, Joan Draper, Dana Eastham, Audrey Tompkins, Louise Crossley, Jack Sherman, Carol Baxter, Sayward Cook, Paula Dimlich, George Henderson, Peter Lord and Alex Meek.

The ninth grade was the only grade to purchase war stamps 100 percent for the past month. We are very proud of the ninth grade and hope that the seventh and eighth grades will follow its good example.

Among the Clubs

The Women's Service League and the Friendly Guild will hold a sale from 2 to 5 December 8 in the Union Congregational church vestry. Vale people will be offered a chance to do their Christmas shopping and to purchase home-made pastries for the table.

Helpers are wanted for the recreation room now being renovated. Men who can help with carpentry work are asked to contact Rev. Arnold Kenseth or Randolph Perry.

The P. T. A. will meet tonight at 8 in the Ballardvale library. Horace M. Poynter of the Phillips academy faculty will speak on cooperatives. All Vale residents are invited.

Personals

Miss Andrea Hofer of Hingham is visiting relatives in the Vale.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Coates, formerly of Marland road, are now residing in North Adams.

The James Sparks and family have returned to their River street home after spending a few months in Beverly.

A special collection for servicemen will be taken Sunday morning at the Union Congregational church.

"Brownie" Scout Troops Being Organized Here

Miss Mary A. Beloin, executive secretary of the Girl Scout Council of the Lawrence area, will be present to assist at the first meeting of the local "Brownie" Scouts tomorrow. Meetings will hereafter be held on Fridays from 3:30 to 5 at the Jackson school, except during school vacations.

A committee has been organized to supervise "Brownie" activities here, and the response has been so enthusiastic that two troops are expected to be formed. Mrs. Sanborn A. Caldwell and Mrs. J. J. Tavern are the troop leaders, and the local committee includes Mrs. James R. Adriance, Mrs. Louis E. Gleason, Mrs. George W. Glennie, Mrs. Robert B. Hatton, Mrs. Raymond G. Mowat and Mrs. George Sanborn.

The Brownie activities are sponsored by the Central P. T. A. because of the need for an organized program for 7 to 10 year old girls. The programs are designed to help the child develop into a well-rounded individual who can take her part in group activity. Both outdoor and indoor programs are planned. Interested parents and youth workers may secure further information from Mrs. Tavern, telephone 1495-M.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hazeltine and family of Tewksbury street have moved to Dedham, where Mr. Hazeltine is employed.

Free Church Calendar

Frank A. Buttrick, general chairman of the Free church every member canvass, has announced the completion of his organization for the house to house visitation Sunday afternoon. A chicken dinner for more than 50 men will be given by the church at 12:30 and team pairings, quotas, and objectives announced at that time.

A discussion will follow the dinner and 25 teams will leave for the field at 2. The Executive committee in charge of arrangements is: Frank A. Buttrick, chairman; Norman MacLeish, personnel; Stanley Swanton, quotas; and Alex Beedie, Alex Black, David Coutts, James Edgar and Geoffrey Nicoll.

Other canvass committee members are: Edwin Anderson, Alexander Bertram, George Brown, Thomas Chadwick, Leslie Christison, Henry Cairnie, John Caldwell, George Cilley, Alexander Campbell, John Carver, David Cargill, Duncan Cairnie, Richard Cargill, Robert Deyermund, William Faulkner, Roland Fraser, James Gillespie, Walter Gordon, Thomas Gorrie, Roy Hood, Robert Hamilton, Wendell Kydd, Emil Keller, George Keith, William Lowe, James Moore, Murray Mealey, John Murray, David McCord, David MacDonald, Archibald MacLaren, George Nicoll, Glenn Noble, John Petrie, David Reynolds, Dr. Sandburg, Edward Schubert, James Souter, Carleton Shulze, Alexander Sherriff, Frederick Scott, John Soutar, Thomas Thin, William Watt, David Wallace, James Watt. Others are also to be appointed.

The church school teachers and officers will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Supt. Alfred Lombard on Lowell street Wednesday evening at 8. Plans for the Christmas party will be completed.

TO RECEIVE CERTIFICATES

At the 11:00 service at Christ church Sunday, Chaplain Albert C. Morris, former rector, will present to the parish a certificate of the war department issued to every church whose minister has left to enter the armed forces.

Can't We Take Care Of Ourselves?

There is no disputing the fact that, since the beginning of the Roosevelt administration, our government has become quasi-socialistic in purpose and policy, and nearly always in deed. The social security, unemployment insurance, F.H.A., A.A.A., N.R.A. and innumerable other agencies and policies have been such as to make large segments of our population dependent upon the federal government for their economic welfare.

While there is no doubt that there are classes of people among us who benefit immensely from such programs, and who would live in poverty and want without them, the policies should affect only such people. That they should be extended, however, to the able-bodied, the young, the intelligent, the trained—in a word, to the self-sufficient—is a dangerous tendency which must be resisted to the utmost.

To understand that such a national socialization is in the offing, we have only to look at the astonishing provisions of the Wagner-Murray-Dingell social security bill now pending before Congress. Senator Wagner himself, speaking for the syndicated feature, "Wake up, America!" put out by the American Economic Foundation, has outlined the provisions of his bill like this: "We need an expanded national system of social security . . . which establishes a nation-wide system of public employment offices to help servicemen and war workers find jobs in private industries or on farms; provides national unemployment insurance up to 26, possibly 52, weeks. The present old-age insurance system is expanded to increase the benefits and include 15 million more persons. Factory, farm, white collar workers, and their families, are protected against loss of wages due to sickness or total disability. It assures adequate medical care to the insured and his family under a nation-wide health and hospital insurance plan. All ex-servicemen are given paid-up benefit rights for their period of service and full coverage for one year after discharge. Increased social insurance contributions by employers and employees would finance the program for 10 to 15 years without government contribution except for servicemen. Such an increase—amounting to 5 billion dollars in the first year—would help mop up surplus purchasing power in wartime, enable virtually the entire working population to pay-as-you-earn now for post-war security."

One John Scoville, unknown to us, but described as a nationally-known industrial economist, author and lecturer, brings out several good points, as well as a few trashy ones, in his rebuttal to Senator Wagner (still in the "Wake Up, America!" release).

For one thing, he states that the bill, to be financially operative, must tax the employee six percent of his wages, and the employer six percent of his profit. It goes without saying that the employer will gain back his six percent by decreasing his employees' salary or increasing the selling price of his product. In effect, the laborer will pay the full 12 percent out of his annual income; the farmer, merchant, doctor and every other American who is not an employer will also suffer.

For the 12 percent, the American will get back: (1) Senator Wagner's "nation-wide system of public employment offices", which will, by its nature, fail to offer vocational guidance, or security in any one job, an incentive to the employee to work for a better job, or to the employer to build up a corps of loyal and experienced workers.

(2) Unemployment insurance for 26, "possibly 52" weeks. Such insurance will offer a tempting prize to the inveterate loafer, and will fail to offer any security to the able worker. For no insurance company ever contemplates paying out money on such a large scale that its reserve funds will be endangered, and no insurance company would dream of operating without a large reserve to begin with. If only five people were insured by a particular company, and four of them lost their jobs, how could the company pay the four out of its current revenues from the fifth?

The expansion of the old-age insurance program sounds legitimate enough, except that again there is no provision for establishing a reserve. As to the provisions for "medical care . . . under a nation-wide health and hospital insurance plan", however, they can only point the way to socialized medicine, a system that would destroy the professional dignity, the economic safety, the scientific foundation of our most badly-needed profession.

In brief, the "cradle to the grave" philosophy underlying the bill is a dangerous one. It blithely implies that the resources of this country will be forever able to take care of a hundred, a thousand or a million people in a dozen different contingencies. It also implies that the average American is not able to take care of himself—which ought to make the average American fighting mad.

It also implies that our present organization of government, and the philosophy underlying such an organization, is to last through our own lifetimes, at least. One government upon which the people depend from the cradle to the grave, for food, shelter, medicine—that's the social state, pure and simple. If we want a social state, we can model it on Hitler's.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor:

The question has been raised whether Ballardvale's recent series of discussion meetings should be added to.

The meetings have been interesting and valued, but they have dealt with broad generalities as to which we already had mostly the same ideas and already felt strongly. Only in some details have we had our ideas corrected or sharpened. And we may feel that our authorities in Washington are already committed to most of these general aims so far as these can be fitted in with each other and with other aims, mostly legitimate.

What everything is going to depend on is the precise concrete steps that are to be taken. If pres-ministration is to be useful it needs to direct itself to these concrete steps. If we have more meetings, they would be most useful by taking of public opinion on the adding up such questions as these:

1. Should the peace settlement include specific measures to prevent the revival of Germany's military power? If so, of what nature and for how long a time?

2. If the end of the war finds the life of the German people thoroughly wrecked, should Germany nevertheless be required to pay any indemnities or reparations to any of those she has injured? If so, of what nature and for how long a time?

3. Is it desirable in principle that there be now established a league of nations, preferably more thorough than the one set up in 1919?

4. If a league is planned, are there any faults which it must not have or else it will be worse than no league at all? If so what?

5. If a league is planned, are there any services which it must be planned to give, or else it will not be worth the trouble of establishing it and running it? If so, what?

6. If the peace conference settles the questions of the treatment of Germany and establishes a league, what other specific matters does it need to provide for either independently of the league or by embodying them in the league?

7. If there is to be no league, what provisions for a better future order of the world can the conference usefully make?

Meetings in which the speakers should suggest answers to such questions, and in which those attending should be invited both to discuss the speakers' suggestions and to add further items, could be very useful. Whether the local public desires to go through with such meetings, and whether those who would have to carry the load of arranging them can afford to do so, I do not know.

STEVEN T. BYINGTON

(Ed. Note—Ballardvale's recent series of community forums is one which could well be emulated in the Center. There have been such discussions here, but within private groups. We think a public forum of some sort should be organized; until it is, we invite any reader with a worthwhile idea for post-war planning to submit it to these columns.

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

AT EASE!

Pvt. Steve Whitney, well-known in amateur acting circles in civilian life, is now with a signal company operating out of Camp Chaffee, Ark.

Earl Baker of Shawsheen, with a new rating of hospital apprentice 2c, is stationed at the Naval hospital at Bainbridge, Md.

Cox. Peter Brucato is still on duty aboard an LST in Pacific waters.

Fran Reilly of Haverhill street, S1c, is at the Naval section base at Rockland, Me.

Cpl. Bill Skea is now with an infantry outfit at Fort Jackson, So. Car.; Cpl. Edmund Skea is at Camp Barkeley, Texas; Jim Skea with an anti-aircraft artillery battery at Camp Stewart, Ga., and Pvt. Edward Skea at a replacement depot somewhere overseas.

Kerr Sparks, who served for several months in the Aleutians before being assigned to Camp Hale, Colo., has returned to Camp Hale for new duties as a ski-instructor after his recent furlough home.

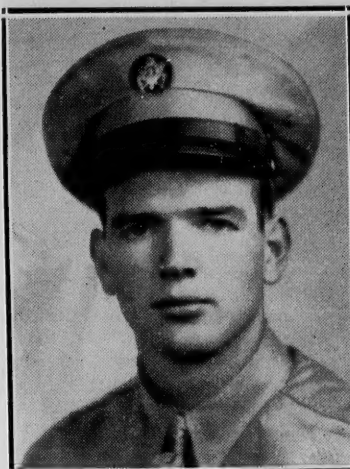

Lt. Bob MacLaren of Lewis street is home from Camp Barkeley, Texas, on a fifteen-day furlough. Bob has a string of service ribbons on his tunic, as he's done quite a bit of traveling in this war. He's now a proud father, incidentally, a daughter, Jean, having been born October 16. Mrs. MacLaren, the former Dorothy Willis of Salem, N. H., who has been residing with Bob in Texas, is returning to live in this part of the country.

The A. D. MacLarens, Bob's parents, this week received a postcard containing an idea that well might be emulated by the local churches. The card, from the chairman of the servicemen's committee at the First Baptist church, Fresno, Calif., read: "Dear Friend — You will be interested to know that, on last Sunday, A. D. MacLaren attended our church. We were glad to have his fellowship with us, and

WINS MINUTE MAN FLAG

Continuing the fine record made by Andover school children in purchasing war bonds and stamps, the Stowe and Jackson school pupils have been awarded the Treasury Minute Man flag for 90 per cent purchases during the month of November. During that month, 311 pupils invested $470.75 in war stamps, and during the first three months of the school year they have purchased $981.65.

The school went "over the top" largely through the success of a rally last week, at which Pvt. Walter J. Morrissey, Marine veteran of Guadalcanal, spoke to the children and asked them to back up the men in service. The children made out stamp purchase pledges at the rally, and passed them individually to Pvt. Morrissey.

Tech. Sgt. K. Walker Lindsay, 21, of the Army Air Force, has been missing in action over Germany since November 5, according to word received by his parents, the Carl N. Lindsays of Salem street, last week. The young local flier has been crew chief on a Flying Fortress in action over Axis Europe for several months, having landed in England in June.

hope that he may make this his church home while he is in this locality"...It was Archie's first Sunday in Fresno, having arrived there last week to continue his training.

Lt. Scott Walker, formerly at the Army air base at Smyrna, Tenn., is reported to be overseas.

A/C Willet L. Eccles, Jr., former Andover boy, has left pre-flight school at Wesleyan university for St. Mary's college, Emmetsburg, Maryland.

Congrats to Fred McDuffie, one of the Army engineers, who has just been promoted to sergeant in reconnaissance. He's still at Camp Shelby, Miss.

We're just getting our first Christmas cards from soldiers and they're beauties. The first one came from a Navy man out in Seattle, and the second, from a Carter's Corner boy at A. P. O. 528, wasn't far behind.

Lt. Lionel Boisvert, formerly of Sherman, Texas, is attached to a chemical battalion now at Camp Swift in that state.

A. C. Fred Butler, formerly at Union City, Tenn., has moved on to Newport, Ark., for his basic.

Pvt. Delwin Shattuck, who, last we heard, was at the replacement depot in Pittsburg, Calif., has been shipped out.

Since his recent trip home, Ralph Hayward has been assigned to another outfit, though still at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The official lapel buttons for honorably discharged veterans of World War II will be available for distribution in about a week. Eligible for the buttons are all enlisted men honorably discharged on or after September 9, 1939, men transferred to inactive status, and officers and members with WAC honorable discharges. Local people eligible may get their button by bringing or mailing their discharge certificates (which will be returned) to Devens, Edwards, Grenier Field, Bedford Airport, and especially the Hotel Buckminster, Boston, MP headquarters.

The engagement of Miss Frances Burke to Lt. John P. Warden, AAF, son of Mrs. Charles S. Warden of Andover, was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan T. Burke of Tulsa, Okla. Miss Burke is a graduate of Wellesley, while Lt. Warden attended Phillips academy and graduated from Williams college before entering service.

Cpl. George Hey moved into Fort Bragg's FARTC just as Pvt. Jack White left there for a new cantonment, as yet unknown.

Lt. Jim Robjont of Elm street is with a fighter squadron now at Keystone Field, Fla. He's in the AAF.

S/Sgt. Tim Cronin of the Marines, former Merrimack Mutual special agent, is now stationed at the Marine Air Depot at Camp Miramar, Calif., holding down a responsible job in the classification section. Tim helps select men for ground crew training, and if he doesn't pick the right type of fellow, Marine pilots are out of luck...Tim's been in the Marines now since July of '42.

Sgt. George Darby is now at an Army hospital overseas somewhere. It's now 2nd Lt. John G. Casey; he graduated yesterday from OCS at Camp Barkeley, Texas. John, stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., before entering OCS a few months ago, is expected to arrive in Andover next week for a brief furlough at his home at 17 Balmoral street before leaving for his new station, Carlisle Barracks, Pa.

Understand Jim Paparella, who left Punchard's senior class to enter Army service, is leaving Keesler Field soon for a new assignment.

Carlton Strong, Jr., son of the Carlton M. Strongs of Stonehedge road, has been accepted for Naval aviation cadet training. The young man is a student at Phillips, where he has won his soccer and track letters and is in the photography and glee clubs...His is a real Navy family, since his brother Frank is also taking Navy flight training and his father was in the Navy in World War I.

A. C. Allan Northam is now training at Maine Central institute, Pittsfield, Me.

Way over in Lord Mountbatten's territory, Archie Davidson of the AAF has been promoted to corporal.

Johnny Smyth, cpl-tech in the AAF, is with the signal section at a Pacific air base now.

Cook 3c Don Look of the Navy came home this week on a brief furlough. Don wears his American Theatre ribbon now, as he's been serving aboard an LST recently — can't say where.

Also furloughing in Andover is S. Sgt. Richard W. Abbott, at his home on Upland road. Dick, in service nearly two years now, has been stationed in South Carolina for over a year as an aerial engineer instructor. He's made several flights to different parts of the country with the C. O. of his wing command.

Pvt. Bill Moore, formerly at Camp Fannin, Texas, is stationed at Louisiana State university in Baton Rouge.

Lt. Charlie Doonan, late of Edgewood Arsenal, Md., and Camp Sibert, Ala., is now stationed with a training group at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. While enroute from Birmingham, Ala., to St. Louis, Mo., a couple of weeks ago, Charlie ran into Ensign Ralph Dushame of Methuen, an adopted Andoverite through his marriage to the former Evelyn Rutter. Their meeting in Louisville was the first time the two had met in 27 months; first time Charlie's met anyone from home, for that matter, in all his travels.

Carter's Corner

Mrs. Jerry Candela has received a V mail letter from her husband, Jerry Candela saying he has reached his destination. We dunno where.

The Fred Richards have received a letter from their son, Pvt. Wilfred Richards, written on some island "over there" saying he's still on his way and all's well.

Pvt. Ray Gaudet of the M. P., is visiting with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alby Arsenault.

The Servicemen's Page is prepared by the Townsman editors with the active assistance of the Servicemen's Fund Association.

The Townsman is sent each week, free of charge, to every local serviceman by the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance Company. We shall appreciate receiving up-to-the-minute addresses for all Andover men and women in service, in order that our mailing list may be kept accurate.

Block Leaders To Collect Waste Fats

Next Wednesday and Thursday, a thorough canvass for waste fats will be made throughout town under the chairmanship of the block leaders. The collection is made in response to Governor Saltonstall's request that all possible waste fat, especially in the holiday months, be made available to the war effort.

Andover's record in waste fat salvage has been a dismal one heretofore, only 62 per cent of its quota being attained as compared with 10 percent in some other communities.

The neighborhood leaders will call at the homes in their districts next Wednesday and Thursday. Either the leaders or the housewives themselves may turn the fats over to the following zone chairmen:

Mrs. Ralph Draper, 27 Bartlet street; Mrs. William A. Fleming, 15 Pasho street; Mrs. Elven Gilfoy, 29 Summer street; Mrs. Robert Hatton, 12 Stratford road; Mrs. Sherwood Kelley, Coolidge road; Mrs. Edwin Lewis, 11 Pasho street; Mrs. Edward C. Nichols, 31 Wolcott avenue; Miss Avis Sanderson, 66 Main street; Mrs. Frederick C. Smith, 62 Chestnut street; Mrs. Frederick Butler, 111 Main street; Mrs. Arthur W. Cole, 16 High street; Mrs. Milton Day, 75 Central street; Mrs. Alan F. Dunlop, 20 Arundel street; Mrs. Joseph T. Gagne, 5 Kensington street; Mrs. Charles B. Hodges, Jr., 306 North Main street; Mrs. Frank J. Kefferstan, 115 Haverhill street; Mrs. Robert E. Marland, 8 George street; Mrs. Harold A. Rutter, 18 Canterbury street; Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin, Hidden Field; Mrs. Eugene A. Bernardin, 11 Abbot street; Mrs. Bertil A. Ryberg, 2 Stinson road; Mrs. Walter Gierasch, off Main street.

The money realized from the sale of the fats to a rendering company will be used to operate the local canning center next summer.

November Club Notes

The dramatic department of the November club will meet tomorrow at 3 at the Red Cross rooms on Main street.

The art department will meet at the Addison Gallery Monday at 3. Bartlett H. Hayes, Jr., will lecture on "Forms and Shapes in Silver." Members planning to bring a guest to this meeting should notify one of the committee members by Monday morning.

The literature department will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 with Miss Julia Twitchell, 43 Bartlet street. Miss Emily Richards will review J. P. Marquand's "So Little Time."

The second lecture in the series, "History in the Making," by Mrs. Frank M. Taylor, will be given Wednesday morning at 9:45.

CONTEST FINALISTS

The contestants in this year's Goldsmith prize-speaking contest at Punchard high school have been announced as follows: Seniors, Durwood Moody and Helen Hannan; Juniors, Thomas Williamson and Marjorie Mears; Sophomores, Robert Moore and Mary Lynch.

The contest will be held during school hours this year for the first time, being scheduled for December 16 at about 12:30. Parents and friends are welcome.

PUNCHARD NOTES

The 44 Punchard boys who helped in the local scrap drive Sunday morning were: John Brennan, George Craig, William Dyer, Emanuel Gigs, Alexander Gordon, Chester Jenkins, Edward Lefebvre, Russell MacLeish, Fred Martinson, Durwood Moody, Allan Mosher, Robert Simon, John Tacy, John White, William McKay, William West, John Nicoll, Patrick Bissonnette, Paul Cheney, William Heidenrieck, John King, John Thomson, Tom Williamson, William Morrissey, George Avery, Homer Judge, Raymond LaRosa, Augustine Sheehy, William Ware, Charles Waterman, William Watts, John Wirtz, Raymond Cronier, Colin Guptill, Norman Markeselines, Philip Markey, Fred McCollum, James McNulty, Luke Mills, Francis Mooney, Robert Phinney and John Robinson.

The Senior class is planning its second social event of the year, a dance to be held in the gymnasium tomorrow night from 8 to 11, with music by Russell MacLeish. The committee in charge is: John Nicoll, chairman; Gertrude Walker, Virginia Wood, Constance McCollum, Barbara Maylum, Russell MacLeish, James Caldwell, Bessie Dantos, Eleanor Demers and John Murnane.

—RUTH GREGORY

RADIO DISCUSSION TONIGHT

The Phillips Academy Hour, broadcast over Station WLAW tonight at 8 will feature a round table discussion on the topic, "How Far Should the United States Go in International Cooperation." Hartwell Daley, station news commentator, will act as moderator.

The speakers who comprise the panel are: Miss Sara Wambaugh, author and well known expert on European affairs, Dr. Clarence R. Skinner, head of the sociology department at Tufts college, and Dr. Claude M. Fuess, headmaster of Phillips academy. The broadcast will originate from the small dining room of the Andover Inn.

CHOWDER LUNCHEON FRIDAY

The Margaret Slattery class of the Free church will give a fish chowder luncheon tomorrow from 11:30 to 1:30 in the vestry. This has been arranged for the convenience of employees of concerns near the center of town. Tickets have been available through members of the organization this past week, and may also be purchased at the door.

Mrs. Thomas Gorrie, president of the class, announced today that final plans for the luncheon had been completed at a meeting on Tuesday night.

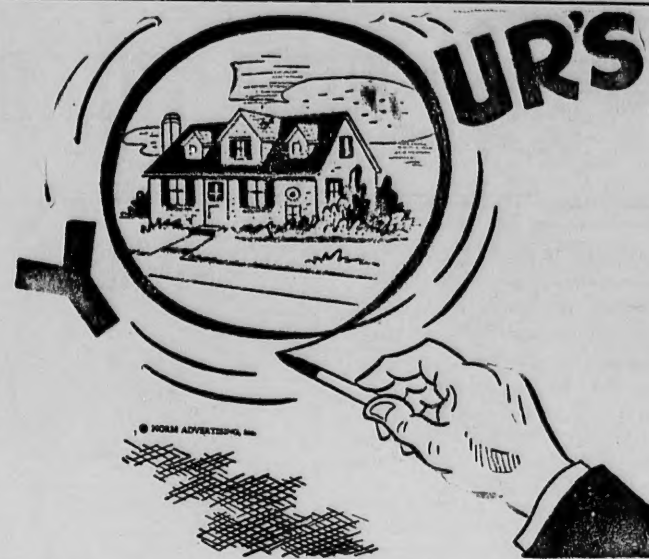

ENGAGED TO LOCAL MAN

Mrs. Donald R. Hill of Winchester has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Martha Hill to Lieutenant Francis A. McClellan, USAAF, son of Mrs. Percy W. McClellan of Orchard street.

Lieutenant McClellan was graduated from Phillips academy and attended Brown university. He served with the Royal Air Force in England and the Middle East before transferring to the United States Army Air Force.

JUNIOR KING'S DAUGHTERS

The Courteous Circle of the Junior King's Daughters will not meet this week. It will, however, meet next Thursday at 7:30 in the South church vestry.

Yes, Ma'am - One Job's Enough!

We're proud of the young housewife who took off her apron, put on her slacks, and went to work in a war plant.

But we realize that the lady can't do tedious household chores — like laundry — in addition to her war work. We do our part by taking the week's heaviest work — the laundry — off her hands.

If we can help YOU in the same way, just give us a ring — 110.

Servicemen's ideas would be particularly welcome—his name need not be printed, of course, if the serviceman so desires.)

To the Editor:

Is it essential that salvage collections, State Guard drills, etc., be held on Sunday mornings? Granted that it may be more convenient; is it necessary? Our men in the armed services are fighting to defend our freedom of worship. Yet a man is not free to worship if he has to work or drill instead. Even though his work or drill may be voluntary, it is not fair to make him choose between worshipping in church and doing his patriotic duty, unless the conflict is unavoidable.

It is our conviction that the fundamental right and freedom of worship must be defended on the home front as well as on the fronts where our men are fighting!

This Sober Town

We note, from this month's draft list, that another Corrigan is going down to Boston for induction. You may remember how shocked we were last month to find out that a Bernard Corrigan was being sent to the induction station, when we had been writing absurd items all along about a Bernard Corrigan whom we had supposed to be wholly mythological. Well, this is still another Corrigan. We can only conclude that the draft board is so sick of our writing eternally about Corrigan that it is determined to clean up the whole family.

Last Sunday's Boston Post had an interesting article on Dr. J. Edgar Park, whose resignation as president of Wheaton college the trustees of that institution have refused to accept.

Dr. Park was pastor of the West church from 1904 to 1907, and during his residence here married Miss Grace Burtt of West Andover.

In connection with his years here, the Post article says:

"... He came to Andover; he knew no one; got a room and for three months no one spoke to him.

"Came the day when the minister of the West church was ill. The congregation would be without services if they couldn't locate a minister by Sunday. They found Dr. Park and persuaded him to conduct the services. Sunday came, sunny and bright — and extremely hot. The church was situated atop a steep hill." (??) "Dr. Park had not calculated the distance correctly and turned up late for his first sermon.

"As minister of this church he automatically became a member of the Andover school committee."

(The Post is wrong here; it's not the school committee, but Punchard's board of trustees.) "At the first meeting the question of a salary raise for one of the teachers in the local school arose. Dr. Park without question voted to raise the teacher's salary $150. He didn't even know who she was.

"A few days afterward he took it upon himself to visit the school" (West Center, we think) "and met the teacher. Later he invited her to go to a theatre in Boston and see Maude Adams. Romance bloomed and they were eventually married.

"From Andover he went to the Second church of Newton, West Newton, and while there was professor of theory of worship at Boston university."

He was succeeded in Andover, we think, by Dr. Dean A. Walker, who in turn was succeeded by Rev. Newman Matthews, 24-year West church pastor until Rev. Donald H. Savage began his pastorate.

ABBOT ACADEMY NOTES

Under the direction of Bertha Morgan Gray, the Abbot dramatic society will give its annual play Saturday night at 8 in Davis hall. The leads will be played by Janet Hitchcock of Cambridge, England, and Marian Marsh of Bala-Cynwyd, Pa. Other members of the cast will be Esther Bufferd, Nancy Emerson, Betty Frank, Cynthia Holmes, Louise Honnen, Nancy McIvor, Priscilla Stevens of North Andover, and Holly Welles.

Rev. Bernard T. Drew of the Lawrence Street Congregational church in Lawrence, and teacher of Bible at Abbot, will speak at the vesper service Sunday at 7:30 in the chapel. Friends of the school are invited.

The winter sports program began Monday with classes in gymnastics, modern dance, posture and correctives. Next week the various Christmas programs will be given and celebrations held, and December 14 the school will close for the Christmas holidays. Classes will be resumed on January 14.

Canvass

Large posters with the inscription, "Worship, our refuge and our strength", have been widely distributed throughout town this week, and the board of selectmen, at their weekly meeting, issued a statement endorsing the campaign.

The proposed ten percent increase in the South church budget, it has been announced, is for the purpose of providing assistance for the minister in his parish work. This week, on a temporary basis, Miss Fannie E. Davis and Miss Harriet Newman have started to fill this need.

The united canvass committee under the Andover Council of Churches consists of Rev. Frank E. Dunn, chairman; Geoffrey Glendinning, secretary; Herbert H. Otis, Stanley F. Swanton, Lathrop Merrick, Harry A. Wright, Roy E. Hardy, William S. Hughes and Thaxter Eaton.

YOUTH FELLOWSHIP MEETS

The Youth Fellowship met last week in the South church vestry for a discussion of several interesting topics. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held Sunday at 6:00 at the Free church.

Only 18 Days Left To Do Your Christmas Shopping

Help prevent the frazzled nerves of the storekeepers from cracking completely by not delaying your Christmas shopping. Buy your necessities within the next two weeks — don't wait until the last day or so. If you do, the early buyers will have exhausted the merchant's stock of what you are looking for.

This store will start immediately to put on sale every article it can possibly procure that you will need for your Christmas planning.

Please bring your empty tonic and milk bottles to your grocer the first three days of the week, to avoid extra work and confusion on Friday and Saturday. Please cooperate!

Youth Hostel Gets Sixth Year Charter

Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the local committee sponsoring the Andover Youth Hostel on Brook street, has received the official AYH charter for the current year from the National headquarters at Northfield. Members of the committee, on whose behalf Mr. Hardy received the charter are: Mrs. Walter E. Pike, Reverend A. G. Baldwin, Mrs. C. C. Kimball, and Mrs. C. D. McDuffie.

The committee will present the charter for the sixth time to the Andover hostel; the house parent is Miss Katherine Walsh.

Open from June 25 to Sept. 6, the hostel has accommodations for 12 girls and 12 boys in separate bunkrooms. Cooking is provided for with an ample supply of pots and pans as well as a cook-stove. An outside fireplace, with picnic table and benches, makes outdoor cooking and eating popular in good weather.

There are 255 chartered Youth Hostels in 24 states from Maine to California, available to all holders of AYH passes (obtainable at any hostel or at Northfield, Mass.) for 25 cents a night. Hikers, bikers, skiers, horseback riders, boaters—all who travel under their own power—are welcome at youth hostels, which are generally situated about 15 miles apart along hiking, or biking trails and waterways. Each hosteler carries a regulation sheet sleeping sack and his own eating utensils, while the hostel provides separate bunkrooms and washrooms for girls and boys and a common kitchen and recreation room, all under the supervision of resident house parents.

League To Discuss Peace Plans Tuesday

A round table discussion on post-war peace plans will be held at the regular League of Women Voters meeting Tuesday at 3 at the Memorial Hall library. Members of the study group which has been meeting on Fridays, and which will hold its final meeting tomorrow at 3 at the library, will take part in the discussion.

The local League has also received word that a Boston Peace institute will be held December 13 and 14 at New England Mutual Hall, Boston, with which the State League will cooperate. The subject is "Win the War—Win the Peace", and a large representation from Andover is expected. Further information will be given in next week's Townsman.

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Jennie Willette Fillion, 56, of 236 Hillside avenue, North Andover, a former Andover resident, died late Monday evening at her home. She was the wife of Joseph Fillion.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Clarice Willette of Andover; a daughter, Mrs. Marion Hutchinson of Wrentham; a sister, Mrs. Vina Hanson of Andover; several nieces and nephews and a grandchild.

The funeral was held this morning, with a high mass of requiem at 9:00, celebrated by Rev. Matthew F. McDonald, O. S. A., in St. Augustine's church. Burial was in St. Augustine's cemetery, where committal prayers were read by Rev. Henry B. Smith, O. S. A.

Marriage Returns Filed

The following marriages have recently been recorded at the office of the town clerk:

November 20, at his home at 145 Abbot street, Lawrence, by Lawrence City Clerk Gordon E. Gaffney, William L. Martini and Miss Viola J. Pavillo, both of Osgood street, West Andover.

November 25, at a nuptial mass at St. Augustine's church by Very Rev. Thomas B. Austin, O. S. A., Miss Katherine R. A. Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smart of 4 Yale road, and Roland P. Masse, 4 Yale road.

November 25, at 321 South Broadway, Lawrence, by Rev. Guy A. Lebel, S. M., Miss Ruth A. Gilman of Lowell street, and Albert C. Fontaine, 103 Chester street, Lawrence.

November 26, at St. Thomas church, Salem, by Rev. Thomas M. Foley, Miss Mary Ellen McGann, 6 Englewood road, Peabody, and Robert Low Bisset of 98 North Main street.

Theatrecraft Plans Dance

Theatrecraft, the new local dramatic group, met Monday night at the home of Miss Maroy Dunn on Hidden road. Plans were made for a "snowball" bridge and dance at the Memorial auditorium January 14. The dance will be followed by the club's first production, "Under the Big Top."

The following committees were appointed for the bridge and dance: tickets, Rev. Frank E. Dunn; music, Bud Young; advertising, Bill Doherty and Doris Rutter; tables, Ruth Anderson and Gloria Field.

Several new members were accepted into the club. There will be a meeting of the executive committee Monday night and a regular meeting of the group the following Monday.

Oldest Resident Gets Cane

Daniel Fitzpatrick of River road, 90 years old, was presented the Boston Post cane last Saturday eve- ning by the members of the board of selectmen. The cane, awarded the oldest resident of the commu- nity, was held previously by David Cunningham of Shawsheen road, who has passed away in recent months. Curiously, both older resi- dents made their home in West Parish.

Mr. Fitzpatrick resides out on River road with his wife, Mary, and has many friends in the Parish and throughout town.

Personals

Andover Grange will meet in Grange Hall December 7 at 8:00 for a program by the dramatic club. Miss Toshiko Baba of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Marilyn Lewis, seniors at the University of New Hampshire, spent Thanksgiving with the Arthur Lewises.

Mrs. Harriet Lee has returned to her home on Haggetts Pond road after visiting with relatives in Providence.

Rev. Newman Matthews of High Plain road preached in West Gloucester Sunday morning.

Albert Gilman of Lowell street is slowly improving at his home from a recent illness.

DEATHS

Mrs. Catherine Egan Toohey, wife of James Lawrence Toohey of 43 Abbot street, passed away at her home Wednesday following an ill- ness. She was born in Glen Cove, L. I., N. Y., but had been a resident of North Andover and Andover from early childhood.

Besides her husband, she is sur- vived by her daughter, Mary, of Stamford, Conn., and her sons, James L., Jr., of New York City, Frederick W., of Boston, and Philip R., U. S. Army Air Force.

A solemn high funeral mass will be sung at St. Augustine's church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and burial will follow in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery, Lawrence.

A well-known resident of And- over, where he had lived most of his life, Ira Osgood Gray, 90, died Thanksgiving Day at the home of his daughter, Miss Alice Gray of Maple avenue, Newton, N. H. Mr. Gray was born in North Andover September 17, 1853, and was a mem- ber of one of that community's old- est families.

He followed the carpentering and building trade, and at one time was associated with the firm of Kendall and Gray. He was a member of St. Matthew's lodge, A.F. and A.M.

Surviving besides his daughter are three sons, Arthur of Reading, Claremont of Andover and Harold of Boxford; a sister, Mrs. Joseph Smith of North Andover; and seven grandchildren.

The funeral was held Sunday af- ternoon in Amesbury, Rev. William Mandigo of Newton, N. H., offici- ating. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery, where the Masonic ritual was read by members of St. Matthew's lodge.

George R. Murray of 31 Magnolia avenue, a prominent resident here, died Saturday evening at the Law- rence General hospital. The well- known local garageman was active in the affairs of Clan MacPherson, O. S. C.

Surviving are his wife, Christine (Thompson) Murray; and a son, Charles A. Murray, now serving overseas in artillery.

The funeral was held from the late home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Frank E. Dunn officiating. Burial was in West Parish cemetery.

James E. Greeley is reported im- proving after a recent illness at his home on Summer street.

Mrs. Alice Clegg of Chandler road underwent an operation at the Clover Hill hospital Monday.

Books of All Types Needed for Soldiers

The Citizens Committee for the Army and Navy, which is affiliated with the U.S.O., has sent out an urgent call for more books for the men in the armed forces. The war services division of the local com- mittee on public safety is co- operating.

They report an urgent call for 500 paper-covered books (pocket size) to be distributed at the port of embarkation. Books will also be sent to Army air advanced bases and to the Coast Guard.

Types of books needed are: fic- tion: current best sellers, short stories, adventure, Westerns, detec- tive, humorous; paper-covered (pocket size): all types; non-fic- tion: current best sellers; particu- larly dictionaries, no matter how old; medical; travel; poetry; lan- guage dictionaries.

All books should be in good con- dition. The Memorial Hall library will serve as the local collection center.

Miss Barbara Robjont of Elm street and Miss Mary Carroll O'Connell of Pynchard avenue were weekend guests at West Point, where they attended the Army-Navy football game.

Appearing as soprano soloist this year will be Miss Sarah Libbey, who has sung brilliantly in light opera with the N. E. Conservatory, from which she graduated last year. Mrs. Daniel Taylor, for many years soloist at Trinity Congregational church, Lawrence, will sing the contralto part. She appeared with the orchestra two years ago.

Domenic Teoli of Lawrence will be concert master, as he is for the Lawrence Alumni orchestra. Other assisting players will be Miss Nellie Zimmer, Boston, harp; Julian Woesner, conductor of the Lowell Philharmonic orchestra, viola; Mrs. Bigelow and Mr. Hemenway, Lowell Philharmonic, cello and bass; Mrs. Eleanor Diemer, Boston, cello.

This year it has appeared appropriate to the orchestra that it devote the concert proceeds to the Servicemen's Fund to help local men and women in the armed forces. Patrons lending their support to this performance are, to date, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. Everett Collins, Norman Vuilleumier, Dr. and Mrs. R. I. W. Westgate, the James Goulds, John L. Shawsheen Women's Club Discusses Christmas Greens

The Shawshen Village Woman's club will hold its annual open meeting Monday afternoon at 3:00 in the Shawshen school hall. Guests are welcome.

Mrs. Edward P. Dean and Mrs. John E. Rooks, co-chairmen of the art department, will present Mrs. James E. Fenton, president of the Lawrence Garden club, who will speak on Christmas greens and decorations for the holiday season.

Mrs. Arthur E. Steinert, chairman of co-operation with disabled war veterans, would like the members to bring old playing cards that are in good condition, and small magazines to the meeting so that they may be sent to the veteran's hospital before Christmas. War stamps will be on sale at the meeting as usual.

Men's Brotherhood Elects James Mosher as President

The Men's Brotherhood of the West church, at its annual meeting, elected James Mosher president for the coming year. Other officers will be Dean Hudgins, vice-president, and Clyde Barlow, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting, held at the home of Robert Marland on Shawshen Heights, drew a good attendance. Herbert Carter led a discussion on "World Order." A rising vote of thanks was given the retiring officers, Robert Marland, president, and Arthur Schwarzenberg, secretary-treasurer.

A. P. C. INITIATION TONIGHT

The A. P. C. sorority of the South church will hold its annual initiation of new members tonight in the church vestry. The entertainment will be in charge of Miss May E. Elander and refreshments will be served by Mrs. George Glennie, assisted by Mrs. Carl Gahan, Mrs. George Abbott, Mrs. K. Raymond Haller, Mrs. Howard Johnson, and Miss Louise Holt.

Punchard, Outgunned By Johnson, Loses 31 to 0

In its traditional Thanksgiving day contest with Johnson high school of North Andover, Punchard went down to defeat by the one-sided score of 31 to 0. The local boys, considerably outgunned by one of the strongest Johnson elevens in years, held North Andover scoreless during the first period, and made a creditable showing in the rest of the game, despite the one-sidedness of the score.

Johnson tallied five touchdowns and one extra point. The first touchdown came when Co-Captain Ray Sullivan of Johnson bowled over from the five-yard line, and the other co-captain, Donald Sullivan, matched his effort from the two-yard line after a 75-yard drive.

After another sustained drive, Sullivan went over from the three in the third period. Rennie scored the fourth on a pass from Sullivan in the fourth period, the net gain being 16 yards for the score. He scored again midway in the final quarter on a 14-yard run. Paul Hulub kicked the only successful point-after following the last touchdown.

Punchard was in scoring position only once during the game, held Thanksgiving morning at Memorial stadium, Lawrence. The team played without several key players who have been injured during the course of the season, and three others who have entered service, two since the beginning of the season.

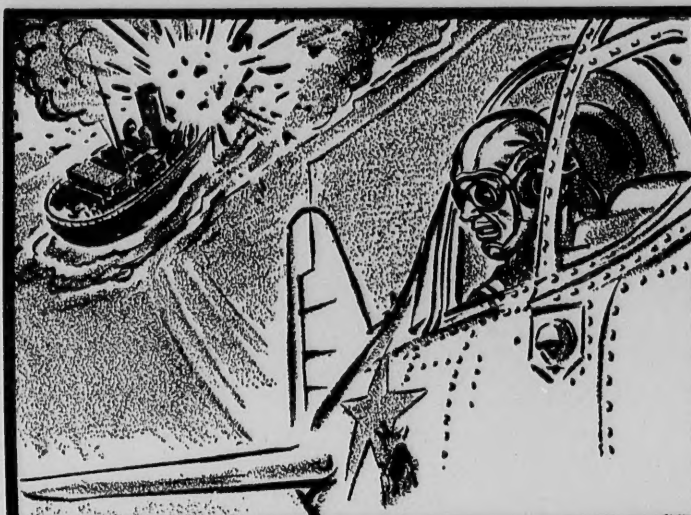

BECOMES GUARD LIEUTENANT

Benjamin F. Dimlich, local Junior high school teacher who resides on Salem street, was recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the Mass. State Guard, and has been assigned to Company L, 24th infantry, the Lowell outfit with which he formerly served as sergeant.

Lt. Dimlich has been in the State Guard since its formation after the equivalent National Guard units had entered service. He is a graduate of Bates college, and has been on the Junior high faculty for the past seven years.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

The South Pacific Aerial Exploits Cross has been awarded to First Lt. William P. Campbell, U. S. M. C., of Minneapolis for his solo bombing attack against five Jap transports and ten destroyers. While ship and shore batteries concentrated all their fire against him, filling the air with flak, he dive-bombed the ship formation, blasted a transport with a direct hit. The War Bond you buy today will help load bomb racks to shatter Jap supply lines.

WEDDINGS

Lamontagne—McGrath

Miss Frances McGrath of 10 1/2 Morton street, was united in marriage with Wilfred Lamontagne, 14 Hawley street, Lawrence, U. S. Navy, in a ceremony performed November 21 in the Sacred Heart church, Springfield, by Rev. D. E. Sherin.

Guidance Association To Discuss Post-War Program

The Merrimack Valley Guidance association, in keeping with its theme for the 1943-44 season, will hold a discussion on the topic, "Mobilizing local social resources for post-war service," at its quarterly meeting Tuesday at the Y.W.C.A., 38 Lawrence street, Lawrence.

Dinner will be served at 5:45, and the speaking program will start around 6:30. The speakers will be Major David C. Bailey, M. C., director of the re-employment program for the State selective service; Roland Darling, director of the community reception center, Boston; and Miss Zelda Lions, executive director of the Prospect Union Educational exchange, Cambridge.

Francis J. O'Brien is president this year, succeeding Edward C. Manning, former local teacher, who entered service. Other officers from Andover are Emil J. DesRoches of Argilla road, vice president; Miss Evelyn I. Banning, principal of the Junior high school, secretary; Mrs. Emma G. Carter of the Punchard faculty, trustee; and John A. Broadhead of High street, committee member.

SEXTON CONCLUDES DUTIES

Very Rev. Thomas B. Austin, O. S. A., pastor, announced last Sunday at St. Augustine's services the resignation of Alfred Godin of Pearson street as sexton. Mr. Godin has held that office for the past 17 years, having previously been a painter on the North Shore.

Succeeding him will be Michael J. Lynch of Essex street, former well-known baseball player, who has taken an active part in parish affairs for some years.
